

CMAS World Cup Indoor Series - Poland 2024

CMAS World Cup Indoor Series - Poland 2024 was held in Łódź, from 2nd to 4th May 2024. It was the second competition of the CMAS world cup pool series that will have qualification status for the coming World Games 2025 in China. The competition gathered over 30 athletes from Poland, Ukraine, Turkey, Croatia and Slovakia.

For three days some of the best athletes in the World competed at the Ztoka Sportu Politechniki Łódzkiej Swimming Pool in three disciplines: DYN, DYNBF and DNF, setting multiple PB and one World Record in senior category. Mateusz Malina (POL), multiple world record holder dived for 238 m in dynamic no fins.

The overall winners of the Cup were multiple world record holder - Magdalena Solich-Talanda, and one of the best male athletes in the World - Karol Karcz, both representing Poland. Solich-Talanda collected 741,5 World Cup points by winning 1 gold medal (DYNBF) and two silver medals (DYN, DNF). Karol Karcz collected 691,375 World Cup points (bronze medal in DYN, silver medal in DYNBF, 4th place in DNF).

The international team of Judges (lead by the main judge Mr. Radosław Gaca), the safety divers and the team of volunteers did their best and helped the competition run smoothly and successfully. The competition was supervised by CMAS Technical delegate Mr. Horst Säger. POLADA (Polish Anti-Doping Agency) was in charge of doping control among competitors.

CMAS World Cup Indoor Series - Poland 2024 was covered both by Polish National TV and international diving related media, such as Deeperblue.com
